Recent law school grad Josh Harlow is putting in long hours at a Manhattan law firm as he gets over a messy breakup. Partnered with Paige, Josh is insistently drawn to the dynamic event planner and sparks between them fly. Getting (More of) What You Want Margaret A. Neale 2015-07-14 Two top business professors offer up the only negotiation book you'll ever need. Do you know what you want? How can you make sure you get it? Or rather, how can you convince others to give it to you? Almost every interaction involves negotiation, yet we often miss the cues that would allow us to make the most of these exchanges. In Getting (More of) What You Want, Margaret Neale and Thomas Lys draw on the latest advances in psychology and behavioral economics to provide new strategies for negotiation that take into account people's irrational biases as well as their rational behaviors. Whether you're shopping for a car, lobbying for a raise, or simply haggling over who takes out the trash, Getting (More of) What You Want shows how negotiations regularly leave significant value on the table—and how you can claim it.

Francis Bacon Mark Stevens 2021-03-23 THE TIMES ART BOOK OF THE YEAR Named one of The Irish Times' Books of the Year for 2021 A compelling and comprehensive look at the life and art of Francis Bacon, one of the iconic painters of the twentieth century—from the Pulitzer Prize-winning authors of de Kooning: An American Master. This intimate study of the singularly private, darkly funny, eruptive man and his extraordinary art "is bejeweled with sensuous detail ... the iconoclastic charm of the artist keeps the pages turning" (The Washington Post). "A definitive life of Francis Bacon ... Stevens and Swan are vivid scene setters ... Francis Bacon does justice to the contradictions of both the man and the art." —The Boston Globe Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times, and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life—from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 (its images "so unrelievedly awful" that people fled the gallery), to his death in Madrid in 1992. Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted, and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images. He moved among the worlds of London's Soho and East End, the literary salons of London and Paris, and the homosexual life of Tangier. Through hundreds of interviews, and extensive new research, the authors probe Bacon's childhood in Ireland (he earned his father's lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting); his increasingly open homosexuality; his early design career—never before explored in detail; the formation of his vision; his early failure as an artist; his uneasy relationship with American abstract art; and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century. In all, Francis Bacon: Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced—and more international—portrait than ever before of this singularly private, darkly funny, eruptive man and his equally eruptive, extraordinary art. Bacon was not just an influential artist, he helped remake the twentieth-century figure.

Empire of Ruins Miles Orvell 2021-01-06 Once symbols of the past, ruins have become ubiquitous signs of our future. Americans today encounter ruins in the media on a daily basis--images of abandoned factories and malls, toxic landscapes, devastating fires, hurricanes, and floods. In this sweeping study, Miles Orvell offers a new understanding of the spectacle of ruins in US culture, exploring how photographers, writers, painters, and filmmakers have responded to ruin and destruction, both real and imaginary, in an effort to make sense of the past and envision the future. Empire of Ruins explains why Americans in the nineteenth century yearned for the ruins of Rome and Egypt and how they portrayed a past as ancient and mysterious in the remains of Native American cultures. As the romance of ruins gave way to twentieth-century capitalism, older structures were demolished to make way for grander ones, a process interpreted by artists as a symptom of America's "creative destruction." In the late twentieth century, Americans began to inhabit a perpetual state of ruins, made visible by photographs of decaying inner cities, derelict factories and malls, and the waste lands of the mining industry. This interdisciplinary work focuses on how visual media have transformed disaster and decay into spectacles that compel our moral attention even as they balance horror and beauty. Looking to the future, Orvell considers the visual portrayal of climate ruins as we face the political and ethical responsibilities of our changing world. A wide-ranging work by an acclaimed urban, cultural, and photography scholar, Empire of Ruins offers a provocative and lavishly illustrated look at the American past, present, and future.

Captivated by You Abookaday 2016-07-27 Captivated by You: Crossfire Series, Book 4, is built using alternating chapters from the two main characters', Gideon's and Eva's, first-person perspectives. Captivated by You uses a unique and most refreshing literary device for romance genre, and one which proves emotional-ly anchoring for the reader and the couple. Also, unlike many other romance flicks, this book attempts to bring in and deal with some weightier, real-life issues. The narrative in this book is female focused, as every attention is given to what we know about female readership preferences. Our male hero, Gideon, is attentive, rich, good-looking - and (bonus, cherry-on-top) yes ladies he cooks in the kitchen - not just in bed! Eva and most fe-male readership will resonate with his continual doting. Gideon is very needy on the love he both gives to and gets from Eva. This is so much so, that the book's title Captivated By You is understated and might be better renamed, Can't Live an Hour Without You. (Yes, it's a tongue in cheek title - or at least his tongue in her cheek(s) title.) The two main characters are, Gideon, the book's central character, and Eva, the protagonist. Gideon and Eva are two professional 20-somethings and painfully needy. Largely, their neediness stems from their abusive sexual pasts. While, both characters come from prior dysfunction, they meet their codependent states mostly with boxers down and skirts up. In this novel, sex is the glue holds all chapters together. There is Monday-night sex, early morning sex, wet shower sex, dry sex, make-up sex, midday sex, weekend sex, after work sex, and sex after sex .... And, yes, this sex starts to wear thin (as likely so do the sheets) about chapter 10 or 11. However, somewhere between psychosis and gratification, the two seem to truly love one another, as even the primal nature of the page garners Gideon's "Angel mine," and reflective poetry. The softness of Gideon's poetic times provide balance for the violent foreshadowing which may be occurring in Day's narrative. Download your copy today! Bared to You Sylvia Day 2014-02 Eva Trammel, plagued by her own insecurities, is drawn into an intense, obsessive relationship with the wealthy and arrogant Gideon Cross. "Gideon Cross came into my life like lightning in the darkness. He was beautiful and brilliant, jagged and white-hot. I was drawn to him as I'd never been to anyone in my life. I craved his touch like a drug, even knowing it would weaken me. I was flawed and damaged, and he opened those cracks in me so easily. Gideon knew. He had demons of his own. And we would become the mirrors that reflected each other's most private wounds and desires. The bonds of his love transformed me, even as I prayed that the torment of our pasts didn't tear us apart."--Back cover.

Captivated Tessa Bailey 2018-05-21 Secret aspiring comedian Autumn Reynolds is a girl gone...not wild exactly. More like lazy. Since her boyfriend abandoned her in New York City for a bunch of improv groupies she's had two priorities; sucking the nitrous out of whipped cream cans and making sex comics about her mysterious landlord. Blake hates people-and sunlight-with good reason. Imagine his surprise when he finds himself lusting after his upstairs tenant, a sunny, Australian people pleaser down on her luck. Turns out his ability to terrify with a single scowl comes with an advantage. Autumn seems to like it. A lot. As evidenced by the prisoner-captive comic Blake was never meant to see. As they embark on a three-date arrangement the rules are clear; filthy, ground breaking sex, no feelings or commitment required. When chemistry is this strong, though, attachment follows. As Blake and Autumn attempt to negotiate their New York romance, their prior histories and secret dreams come to the foreground. How long can these polar opposites remain Captivated, when all signs point to disaster?

Summary of Captivated by You A Book a Day 2016-09-29 Captivated by You: Crossfire Series, Book 4, is built using alternating chapters from the two main characters', Gideon's and Eva's, first-person perspectives. Captivated by You uses a unique and most refreshing literary device for romance genre, and one which proves emotional-ly anchoring for the reader and the couple. Also, unlike many other romance flicks, this book attempts to bring in and deal with some weightier, real-life issues. The narrative in this book is female focused, as every attention is given to what we know about female readership preferences. Our male hero, Gideon, is attentive, rich, good-looking - and (bonus, cherry-on-top) yes ladies he cooks in the kitchen - not just in bed! Eva and most fe-male readership will resonate with his continual doting. Gideon is very needy on the love he both gives to and gets from Eva. This is so much so, that the book's title Captivated By You is understated and might be better renamed, Can't Live an Hour Without You. (Yes, it's a tongue in cheek title - or at least his tongue in her cheek(s) title.) The two main characters are, Gideon, the book's central character, and Eva, the protagonist. Gideon and Eva are two professional 20-somethings and painfully needy. Largely, their neediness stems from their abusive sexual pasts. While, both characters come from prior dysfunction, they meet their codependent states mostly with boxers down and skirts up. In this novel, sex is the glue holds all chapters together. There is Monday-night sex, early morning sex, wet shower sex, dry sex, make-up sex, midday sex, weekend sex, after work sex, and sex after sex .... And, yes, this sex starts to wear thin (as likely so do the sheets) about chapter 10 or 11. However, somewhere between psychosis and gratification, the two seem to truly love one another, as even the primal nature of the page garners Gideon's "Angel mine," and reflective poetry. The softness of Gideon's poetic times provide balance for the violent foreshadowing which may be occurring in Day's narrative. Download your copy today! for a limited time discount of only $2.99!
